

Dear Globant recruiting team,

With great enthusiasm I am writing to you to apply for the vacancy of developer at Globant, a digital native company where engineering, design and innovation meet to reach a large scale.

Hi! I am Camila, My passion for technology and web development has led me to continuously explore new technologies and creative approaches. I consider myself an innovative person, always ready to face new challenges and learn from them. I enjoy working in teams and collaborating with other professionals to develop creative and effective solutions that make a difference.

What fascinates me most about web development is its ability to merge technology with creativity, allowing me to contribute to the development of projects that have a real impact on society. I am excited to have the opportunity to put my skills at the service of a team like Globant, where I know I can continue to grow professionally and face new challenges.

I am particularly attracted to Globant's mission of integrating engineering, design and innovation to drive cutting-edge solutions. I am excited about the opportunity to be part of a team of over 29,000 professionals, working on projects for leading global companies such as Google, Rockwell Automation, Electronic Arts and Santander.

I am particularly attracted to Globant's inclusive and diverse approach. I strongly believe in the importance of an inclusive culture and a diverse environment, where everyone can contribute to their full potential regardless of their background, identity or personal circumstances. I am convinced that my passion for technology and desire for professional growth aligns perfectly with Globant's purpose of creating a respectful, safe and inclusive workplace for all Globers.

I sincerely appreciate the opportunity to consider my application and look forward to the possibility of contributing to Globant's success with my passion, skills and commitment. I am available for any additional inquiries and look forward to discussing how I can contribute to the team.

Sincerely,

Maria Camila Leal Vasquez
